

Michael Brady, MSW

Co-Executive Director, Southeast Chicago; Executive Director Southwest Center

Michael Brady brings a wealth of talent, skill and expertise to Metropolitan Family Services, possessing broad skills in program development and administration. He serves as Co-Executive Director of Southeast Chicago, a position he has held since 2007. He also has served as Executive Director of Southwest Center since April 2000.

Brady came to the agency from Glenkirk, where he was Vice President of Enterprise and Quality. While at Glenkirk, he provided leadership in community relations, oversight for 40 group home facilities, funding for suburban United Ways, legislative activities, and strategic planning. His other work experience includes the Peace Corps, Central Baptist Family Services and the University of Illinois Division of Specialized Care for Children, where he was responsible for bringing together a multitude of services to benefit families with children who had a wide variety of chronic illnesses.

Brady received his master's degree in Social Work from Loyola University and a Certificate in Business Administration for Not-for-Profit Managers from the University of Illinois at Chicago. As part of his internship for school, he worked at Metropolitan Family Services North Center.
