ABOUT US

Since opening our Metropolitan Family Services Southeast Chicago office on the heels of the steel mill closings, we are now enthusiastic participants, with our collaborators, in the economic and social renaissance within the community. Our staff is proud to have worked in South Chicago since 1985, and families throughout the community see the Southeast Center as a beacon of hope for the future.

COMMUNITIES SERVED

The five far Southeast Side communities served by this center, South Chicago, Calumet Heights, South Deering, Hegewisch and the East Side, face a number of challenges complicated by economic issues. High rates of poverty, crime and unemployment, coupled with underperforming schools, an aging population that needs services but has limited affordable housing, make this an area of great disparity. We provide a variety of services including counseling, parenting programs and economic stability training to residents in these areas.

STAFF

Southeast Chicago is comprised of 83 full and part-time staff members.

NUMBER OF CLIENTS

We served 5,370 clients in 2011.

The FY12 budget for Metropolitan Southeast Chicago is $4.9 million.
