ABOUT US

Mental health issues touch families and individuals in many different ways. Through caring counsel and supportive services, the team of professionals at our Metropolitan Family Services Southwest Center strives to help families and individuals reach a brighter future. Serving Southwest Cook County since 1966, we cross cultural barriers and work in partnership throughout the community to help families manage daily challenges and crisis situations.

COMMUNITIES SERVED

Serving five townships in the Southwest suburbs, Calumet, Lemont, Orland, Palos and Worth as well as Blue Island and Oak Forest, Metropolitan Southwest provides assistance to the residents of this area who are experiencing an increase in poverty, underperforming schools and limited psychiatric resources for those who require mental health assistance, among other issues. Counseling, mental health and school programs are provided.

STAFF

Southwest Center is comprised of 105 full and part-time staff members.

NUMBER OF CLIENTS

We served 4,066 clients in 2011.
