Bringing the kids back into focus because every kid deserves to be Safe from the Start

Safe from the Start offers a variety of family support and mental health services to families with children age 0-5 years old who have been affected by abuse or neglect, or exposed to community, domestic and/or media violence.

Safe from the Start provides assessments, referrals, linkages, individual and family counseling, and support and education groups for parents and children.

For information or services, call
(773) 371-3642

Seeing or hearing violence at home, in the neighborhood, or on television can have a serious affect on young children.
