

EMMA PRESTON

Paralegal, Safety & Family Practice Group

As a paralegal in the Legal Aid Society's Safe Families Program, Emma assists clients with drafting documents for orders of protection while providing the clients with legal information and trauma-informed care.

Prior to working with the Safe Families Program, Emma interned with a member of Congress, where she conducted research and assisted with legislation meant to curb sexual violence on college campuses.

Emma is a recent graduate of the University of Chicago, where she studied Political Science and Visual Arts and worked with survivors of domestic and sexual violence through multiple student organizations. In her spare time, she likes reading, painting, and spending time at the lake.
