

ABOUT COMMUNITIES PARTNERING 4 PEACE (CP4P)

Communities Partnering 4 Peace (CP4P), convened by Metropolitan Family Services, is an unprecedented partnership of leading outreach and restorative justice organizations that are reducing gun violence in Chicago with a comprehensive, evidence-based, trauma-informed approach. Working with police and the public sector, CP4P is a coordinated response to the public health crisis that is gun violence.

The eight CP4P community groups in nine neighborhoods are Austin, Institute for Nonviolence Chicago (INVC); Back of the Yards (New City), Precious Blood; Englewood, Target Area DevCorp; West Englewood, Inner-City Muslim Action Network (IMAN); East Garfield Park, Breakthrough; West Garfield Park, Institute for Nonviolence Chicago (INVC); Humboldt Park, Alliance of Local Service Organizations (ALSO); Little Village (South Lawndale), New Life Centers; North Lawndale, UCAN.

For more information, visit metrofamily.org/cp4p-info.