

LEGAL AID SOCIETY – ELDER JUSTICE INITIATIVE INTERNSHIP

The Elder Justice Initiative of the Legal Aid Society of Metropolitan Family Services is seeking candidates for a fall 2021 law student internship that will focus on advocacy for elder (60+) victims of abuse, neglect, and financial exploitation. The intern will work with the Elder Justice Initiative attorneys to provide legal services in a variety of cases, including domestic violence, divorce, theft/embezzlement, housing law, and guardianship, to elders throughout Cook County, Illinois. The exact start and finish dates will be determined between the intern and their supervisor.

RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Identify and analyze legal problems and solutions relevant to adult guardianship, elder financial exploitation, housing, and other related issues;
2. Participate with attorneys in client interviews and negotiations with adverse parties;
3. Prepare legal documents including motions, discovery materials, and pleadings in connection with court proceedings;
4. Assist with LAS's Elder Help Desk as needed;
5. Maintain client files and data; and
6. Work effectively with staff and a diverse client population.

QUALIFICATIONS

The ideal candidate will possess the following attributes:

1. An interest in elder law or victim advocacy;
2. Excellent research and writing skills;
3. The ability to communicate effectively with attorneys, clients, and co-workers;
4. Strong organizational skills and attention to detail; and
5. Patience and professionalism while working with diverse populations.

Preferred Qualifications:

1. A background in public interest work, elder law, health care law, or family law;
2. Spanish language fluency; and
3. An Illinois 711-license (or the ability to obtain one at the start of the internship).

To apply, please email a resume and cover letter to Elizabeth Gresk, Director of Pro Bono, at LASInterns@metrofamily.org. Please note in the subject line the position which you are applying for (EJI Internship). Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis until the position is filled. LAS hopes to fill the position in early August 2021.
