The darling Dionne Miller.

Metropolitan Family Services DuPage celebrated its 22nd annual DuPage Gala to highlight the organization's holistic approach to serving families and individuals. The event took place in Woodridge at Bobak's Signature Events, with sports anchor Dionne Miller serving as emcee. The evening included impact speeches from families who have benefited from MFS's Supporting Housing Initiative for Families in Transition program and also recognized its Roger K. Johnson Leadership Awardees -- Mary Ann and Paul Travers, Mike Skarr and Paul Pycik -- for their commitment to Metropolitan and Family Shelter Service of Metropolitan DuPage. The gala was co-chaired by Metropolitan DuPage Board Members Dan McGowan and Emily Shupe. MFS is a nonprofit that provides support and family services to strengthen communities.
